NO. 10,595—38TH YEAR. COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1910.—TWELVE PAGES. PRICE FIVE CENTS

"SLATE" IS RATIFIED BY REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

House Majority Selects Six Members of New Committee on Rules.

"INSURGENTS" SATISFIED

Dalzell New Chairman by Seniority of Service—Cannon Votes for Successful Ticket.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—With only the friendliest rivalry, the Republican caucus selected the six members tonight of the rules committee apportioned to the Republican majority of the House. The following, all members of the regular wing of the party, were chosen.

Walter I. Smith, Iowa, 168 votes.
John Dalzell, Pennsylvania, 146 votes.
George P. Lawrence, Massachusetts, 126 votes.
J. Sloat Fassett, New York, 113 votes.
Sylvester C. Smith, California, 136 votes.
Henry S. Boutell, Illinois, 108 votes.

Two ballots were taken, the four that named receiving a majority of votes cast on the first ballot, and the two last named being chosen on the second ballot.

The six members named represent a slate prepared by Representative Tawney of Minnesota after numerous conferences with both regulars and insurgents.

The vote in the caucus tonight was taken by written ballot. Nineteen men were placed in nomination, and a large number besides these received complimentary votes. Representative Gardner of Massachusetts received 33 votes, the highest number cast for any "insurgent."

Tawney Is Rebuked.

The only incident that threatened to produce excitement was when Representative Tawney offered a resolution proposing the list of six men as named. Immediately there was objection to the restricted nominations, and an informal nominating ballot was proposed. Mr. Tawney demurred and Representative McCall of Massachusetts told him that in New England "when a slate was brought into a convention" it was generally considered a Democratic way of doing things. He believed there should be an open ballot.

Representative Payne of New York, majority leader, settled the controversy by declaring in favor of an informal ballot. Mr. Tawney withdrew his resolution and that, which nevertheless proved successful on the ballots that followed.

The members will rank on the enlarged rules committee according to their seniority of service, which will give the chairmanship to Mr. Dalzell.

The Democrats will caucus tomorrow night to name the four members allotted to the minority and the whole list will be brought before the House Friday for formal election.

"A Square Deal," Says Norris.

The insurgents appeared satisfied although none of the radicals expressed themselves on the subject. Representative Norris of Nebraska, said:

"It was a fair square deal. I think everybody is well satisfied. Of course the men selected are not the men I

MAY BUILD STRUCTURE OF BRICK OR CEMENT

Committee on Poor Tuberculosis Sanatorium to Raise More Funds.

Subscriptions amounting to $135, to the fund being raised for the establishment of a tuberculosis sanatorium in Colorado Springs, were received yesterday at the office of the associated Charities. They are:

Broadmoor Drug company	$1.00
Brown Lumber company	5.00
E. E. Dunwoody	5.00
Mrs. W. G. Thorn	25.00
A. Friend	10.00
Mrs. F. H. Fette	25.00
Two Friends	10.00
Joseph Loomans	5.00
Total	$125.00

Because of the liberal response to the appeal for funds the committee in charge of the campaign is now planning to make an effort to raise two or three thousand dollars more, and to construct the building out of cement or brick instead of wood. For the little difference in cost, it is believed that enough can readily be raised to make the building of more substantial construction.

SIX SEAMEN PERISH WHEN VESSEL FOUNDERS

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 23.—The 62 ton gasoline schooner Arthur D. bound from Tacoma for Nanaimo, B. C. with a cargo of gypsum foundered off the Fraser river lightship last night in a storm, and Captain W. Donahan and a crew of five men perished.

PROPOSES TO RAISE HULK OF THE MAINE

BILL FOR PURPOSE PASSED BY THE HOUSE.

Provides for Examination to Determine Manner of the Battleship's Destruction.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The hulk of the ill-fated battleship Maine sunk in the harbor of Havana will be raised so that the remains of the sailor dead that may be in the wreck may be recovered, and so that an examination may be made to determine the manner in which the vessel was destroyed, if the Senate approves a bill passed by the House today.

The bodies of sailors recovered will be interred in Arlington cemetery.

The mast of the Maine is to be erected near the graves of the Maine dead.

As passed by the House the bill was changed in its general terms so as to authorize the work to be done under the direction of the engineer corps of the army with the consent of the Republic of Cuba.

By the insistence of Mr. Sulzer of New York the bill was worded to require the "raising" as well as the "removal" of the wreck so that an examination could be made of the hulk to determine the manner of the ship's destruction.

Demands Respect for Uniform.

The House also passed a bill providing a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years for the proprietor of any place of amusement in the District of Columbia and territories who refuses admission to a soldier or a sailor because of his uniform.

For Protection of Seal Herds.

The Senate passed the Dixon fur seal bill which nullifies the lease held by the North American Commercial company. The measure places discretion in regard to the killing of seals in the hands of the secretary of commerce and labor in line with the recommendation by the President in his message to Congress.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was reported to the Senate today. It carried $34,034,357, a net increase of $192,562 over the bill as it passed the House. The aggregate amount carried is $8,401,162 less than the appropriation for the same purpose for the current fiscal year.

Through the efforts of Senator Hale, a provision has been incorporated in the bill requiring that the reports under the corporation tax provision in the tariff act shall be made public upon the order of the President when he deems it for the public interest.

In the Senate the bill providing for a modification of the laws relating to the judiciary was under consideration almost the entire session.

Amend Administration Measure.

When the administration railroad bill was taken up by the Senate today Senator Elkins said that as no one was prepared to speak on the bill he would ask to have it temporarily laid aside. He said that he would not again call up the measure until after the disposal of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill which would come up tomorrow but after the passage of the appropriation bill he would request the senators either to proceed with discussion of the bill or to fix a time for voting on it.

Mr. Elkins put in a large part of the day circulating among senators in the hope of stirring them to greater activity in getting their speeches ready. He found a dozen or more contemplating address but none now prepared to speak. Among prospective speakers are Senators Root, Bailey, Hughes, La Follette, Bristow, Dolliver, Crawford, Borah and Newlands. Many of them were found to be holding off until committee amendments were submitted.

Members of the committee are giving much attention to modifications to meet objections urged against the bill.

Another general examination of the terms of the administration railroad bill, was made by the House committee on interstate commerce today. The committee, although agreed on the bill, deferred formal action on the measure until tomorrow. The bill, originally framed at the instance of the President and attorney general has undergone a complete transformation in the House committee.

GREAT NORTHERN CENSURED

Coroner's Jury Criticises Railroad for Leaving Train Where It Was Struck by Avalanche.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 23.—The coroner's jury investigating the Great Northern disaster at Wellington in which 96 lives were lost March 1 brought in a verdict today that the avalanche resulted from causes beyond human control.

Although the verdict does not fix responsibility for the disaster on the Great Northern Railroad company the company is criticised for not having placed trains in a place to avoid accident and it is stated if a siding east of the station had been used trains would have been out of danger.

The Great Northern is also criticised for having paid laborers engaged in clearing the track only 15 cents an hour without board. As a result 35 men left work when their services were most needed and the jury censures the railroad for not retaining sufficient men to clear the track regardless of cost.

At the inquest today letters and a diary written by Mrs. M. A. Covington of Olympia, Wash., who was killed, were introduced to show that the passengers had been in great fear of a slide for days before it came.

EXCITING BATTLE FOUGHT ON TRAIN

THREE MEN KILLED AND TWO WOUNDED.

Desperado Shoots Porter and Conductor and Resists Force Until He Loses His Own Life.

WILMINGTON, Del., March 23.—An exciting battle in which three men were killed and several injured occurred on a northbound Baltimore and Ohio railroad train today. The fight began at Newark, Del. and ended in this city.

The dead:

O. F. WILLMAN of Philadelphia, conductor of the train.

SAMUEL WILLIAMS, negro porter.

J. H. BETHEA of Dillon, S. C.

John O. Wilson, a park guard of Wilmington, was shot in the hand and leg and Mathew Haley of Wilmington was shot in the leg while others were grazed by flying bullets.

Bethea, who had been drinking heavily, had quarreled with the porter and shot him through the heart, killing him instantly.

Conductor Wellman remonstrated with Bethea who without a word shot Wellman through the heart and the conductor fell dead.

The murderer then stood off the passengers until the train reached Wilmington. When it came into the station a hurry call was sent to the police station and a squad of policemen reinforced by park guards and a posse of citizens and trainmen ran to the scene.

The police called upon Bethea to surrender. As an answer he opened fire at the police and the crowd from an automatic revolver. Bethea is believed to have had at least 100 rounds of ammunition for he held the posse at bay from 7:17 until 8:3.

In all this time many shots were fired on both sides until finally all the windows of the car were riddled.

When the battle had lasted about an hour the police asked aid from a fire company near by. Firemen barricaded behind trucks and boards played a stream of water upon windows of the car and Bethea drenched with water staggered to the platform. The police once more called upon him to surrender but his reply was several shots in quick order. As Bethea emptied his revolver Police Captain Evans fired a load of shot into his face. Nothwithstanding this injury he kept on blazing away.

Patrolman Boughman opened fire with a pistol and struck Bethea in the right arm. The desperate man tried to fire again but the police closed in and as they took hold of him he fell dead.

DILLON, S. C., March 23.—John Henry Bethea was a well-to-do contractor of this place and a member of a prominent South Carolina family. He left here Monday for Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore, where he had planned to have an operation performed in the hope of being cured of a disease which had troubled him for a long time. When he left he seemed perfectly rational. He was about 40 years old and unmarried.

NAME TRUSTEE FOR NETTIE JOHNSON

LABOR COMMISSIONER TO PROVIDE PROTECTION.

Builders Finally Settle by Giving $750, One-Third of Which Is in Cash.

Now that he has succeeded in securing $750 from her former employers for Nettie Johnson, the girl who ran away from the M. J. Fender ranch near this city some time ago, State Labor Commissioner Brake of Denver will now have a trustee appointed to care for the girl's money. While on the ranch the girl had little opportunity to learn the ways of the world, with the result that she knows nothing about business affairs, although 27 years old. The trustee, who will probably be a Denver man, will be appointed for a term of about one year, after which the girl will have the entire property turned over to her to do with as she pleases.

This fact was learned yesterday from Mr. Brake just before he returned to Denver. His visit to this city was to investigate the man who signed her a promissory note for $750. The balance of the $750 to be paid the girl for back wages will be in cash.

Miss Sylvia Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bender, was in Colorado Springs yesterday and when asked about the case against her parents denied most emphatically the Johnson girl's statement that she was treated while on the ranch.

COMPROMISE IS EFFECTED

Agreement Reached This Morning Between Western Railroads and Firemen's Committee.

CHICAGO, March 24.—Terms of agreement in the federal intermediation in the controversy between the 27,000 firemen on western railroads and the railroad managers were reached early this (Thursday) morning. Demands of the firemen for a 12½ per cent increase in pay will be arbitrated under the Erdman act.

Any fireman temporarily promoted to be an engineer after having had the position for 60 days retains his seniority and must not be reduced irrespective of which union he is a member.

The agreement on all except the [illegible] question was accepted by both sides. On the [illegible] question both sides agreed to abide by the decision of the arbitration board, which is to be selected later.

The terms were agreed to by W. C. Nixon, general manager of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, on behalf of the managers committee and by W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

BOY HERO'S TESTIMONY CONVICTS CHAUFFEUR

NEW YORK, March 23.—Through the testimony of George H. Callaghan, 14 years old, John O'Hanlon, a chauffeur, was convicted today of manslaughter in the second degree. He was remanded for sentence.

O'Hanlon's machine ran over and killed a young woman last October and the chauffeur put on full speed in an attempt to escape.

Young Callaghan sprang on the running board and clung there despite O'Hanlon's blows until a policeman interfered. The boy subsequently received a Carnegie hero medal.

ASKS INVESTIGATION OF C. F. & I. CAMPS

COMPANY ACCUSED OF OPEN DEFIANCE OF LAW.

Labor Commissioner Makes Serious Charges in Report to Governor on Primero Disaster.

DENVER, March 23.—Characterizing the system employed by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company in the operation of its mines in southern Colorado as "open defiance of the law," State Labor Commissioner E. V. Brake in his report on the Primero coal mine disaster in which 76 miners lost their lives on January 31 last, calls upon Governor Shafroth to appoint a commission to make a rigid investigation of conditions in Las Animas and Huerfano counties where the Colorado Fuel and Iron coal properties are located.

Mr. Brake finds that the following conditions existed in the Primero mine previous to the explosion:

"Insufficient sprinkling as provided by law.

Local gas explosions frequent.

Lack of sufficient timbers for use of miners.

Houses in the camp of poor construction.

No check-weighmen for the benefit of the miners.

Employs Inexperienced Foreigners.

In opening his report Mr. Brake declares that the Colorado Fuel and Iron company employs inexperienced non English speaking miners because they are "not familiar with wage conditions in this country and can be secured at a lower wage than English-speaking miners."

He finds that in northern Colorado coal fields "every law is obeyed with reference to hours, methods of mining, wages and conditions in mines." He contrasts this with conditions in mines of southern Colorado, closing with the following declaration regarding treatment of miners:

"If an employe complains of conditions under which he works he is fortunate if he only receives a discharge. In most cases he receives personal physical abuse at the hands of paid thugs known as deputy sheriffs in the employ of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company."

Mr. Brake quotes from the report of State Mine Inspector John D. Jones on the Primero disaster regarding the cause of the explosion. He includes a copy of a bill by Representative Hurd of Boulder county introduced in the Seventeenth general assembly, to provide regulations for the mining industry in the state. He declares that the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, through its agents, encompassed the defeat of the bill.

Criticises Coroner's Jury.

Mr. Brake also scores the coroner's jury which investigated the Primero disaster declaring the jury was composed of employes of the company and returned a verdict without careful in-

ROOSEVELT TO SPEND A WEEK AT CAIRO

WILL BE ENTERTAINED AT PALACE BY KHEDIVE.

Big Program Arranged.—Another Mission Visited.—Refuses to Comment on Pinchot's Trip.

LUXOR, Upper Egypt, March 23.—Colonel Roosevelt's departure from Luxor at 7 o'clock this evening was made the occasion of a great outpouring of residents and tourists, who cheered the ex President as his train started for Cairo. The Egyptian capital will be reached tomorrow morning and Colonel Roosevelt and his party will remain in that city nearly a week.

Preparations have been going on in Cairo for a royal reception to the distinguished American and the khedive has announced that he will send a state carriage for Colonel Roosevelt to convey him to the palace. The plans include several dinners, a visit to the University of Egypt, where Colonel Roosevelt will deliver an address, a visit to the American mission where he will dedicate the girls' college, and a thorough inspection of the many places of historic interest.

The subject of the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy and the departure for Europe of Gifford Pinchot deposed chief forester of the United States, for the ostensible purpose of conferring with the former President were brought to Colonel Roosevelt's attention today but he declined to make any statement, merely reiterating his decision not to discuss public questions until he has all the facts.

Visits Presbyterian Mission.

Today was given over largely to preparations for the journey to Cairo and to resting after two days of strenuous sight seeing but Colonel Roosevelt found time to visit the mission of the United Presbyterian church of North America. The mission of Egypt, established in 1854, has extended its operations from the Mediterranean to the first cataract, the stations being at Sohat, Khartum, Luxor, Assiut, Cairo and Alexandria.

Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by Dr. Robert S. McClenahan and the Rev. Ralph G. McGill, drove from the hotel at 3 o'clock in the afternoon to the American mission. The road was lined by mission boys, who saluted the ex-President. Miss C. M. Buchanan, principal of the girls school, who is a native of Hebron, Ind., and Miss Helen J. Ferrier, assistant principal, received the guests at the mission.

Extols Girls School.

As Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt entered the room, crowded with Europeans and Egyptians and old and more recent graduates of the school the girl students sang a song of welcome. Dr. McClenahan greeted the visitors in a hearty speech to which Colonel Roosevelt responded at considerable length.

He expressed his pleasure at being able to visit the mission saying he had known of the work accomplished for many years and had seen for himself results of the work.

"I was particularly anxious to see the girls school because I think it is being realized more and more strongly that it is impossible to uplift one part of humanity while neglecting others. Above all we can't raise man unless woman is raised also. The missions must be for both sexes."

Colonel Roosevelt's words were greeted with tremendous applause and during an informal reception that followed the children sang patriotic airs. The party then re-entered carriages and returned to the hotel.

Pope to Receive Roosevelt.

ROME, March 23.—Some time ago ex-President Roosevelt wrote to Ambassador Leishman requesting him to arrange for audiences with King Victor Emmanuel and Pope Pius. Mr. Leishman communicated indirectly with the Vatican and the audience there has been fixed for April 5. The pope is eager to meet Mr. Roosevelt and therefore has made no objection to the audience following that at the Quirinal. Since the former President is not a Catholic precedence of the Vatican visit over that to the Quirinal was not indispensable.

CAN NOW ACQUIRE TITLE

Concession Granted to Squatters on Unsurveyed Land in National Forests.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Squatters on unsurveyed land in the national forests who have occupied their tracts continuously since before the creation of the forest reserves, and have complied with the homestead law, have had their rights increased by an order just issued by the secretary of agriculture.

Such settlers can now acquire title prior to survey, to 160 acres.

In cases where less than 160 acres have been listed to a person who settled upon land before the creation of the forest an additional area sufficient to complete the homestead entry will be allowed upon application.

POULTRY DEALERS INDICTED ON CHARGE OF EXTORTION

NEW YORK, March 23.—Thirty to 35 indictments, it was learned today, have been found within the hands of the poultry trade in this city by the grand jury which has been investigating the charges that the live poultry dealers united to fix prices and extort unfair rates from the public. The indicted men are said to include shippers, receivers and wholesale dealers. The indictments will be handed in tomorrow.

PENNSYLVANIA UNIONS WILL APPEAL TO BALLOT

Leaders of State Federation of Labor Abandon Plan for Sympathetic Strike.

CARMEN KEEP UP FIGHT

Philadelphia Situation a Test of Endurance—Miners' Scale Still in Controversy.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 23.—After being in session nearly all day the executive council of the State Federation of Labor came to the conclusion that it would be inopportune to call a statewide strike to aid striking street carmen in Philadelphia.

This decision was reached unanimously and it is said to have been hastened by the action of the trades workers of Philadelphia who went out on a sympathetic strike but returned to work.

President Greenwalt was positive in his statement that the only way the working classes in Philadelphia and throughout the state can get justice was through the ballot and the council decided to give every assistance to the plan to organize a labor party.

Car Men Stand Firm.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—With the decision of the state labor organizations not to declare a sympathetic strike and the return to work of many sympathetic strikers today, the situation has settled down to a question of endurance between striking car men and the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company.

The company now has all its lines in operation except a few which are paralleled by cars in operation. Officials claim 1,300 cars are in operation.

The secretary of the street car men's union claims tonight that the greatest number of cars operated in a single day since the beginning of the strike was 460. He claims there are only 500 members of the Keystone union, members of which remained loyal to the company, and that even with imported strikebreakers the company still requires 4,400 more men.

The committee of ten of the Central Labor union, directing the general strike, in its statement today makes no reference to the collapse of the sympathetic strike, but says it is assured the company cannot hold out much longer.

At a mass meeting of the striking motormen and conductors this afternoon the stand of their leaders in refusing to accept the proposition made by the company through Mayor Reyburn was indorsed and it was voted not to return to work until the company agrees to give the men back their old runs, thereby preserving their right of seniority.

Ohio Mine Strike Explained.

CINCINNATI, March 23.—Advances were given tonight by President T. L. Lewis that a report regarding the controversy between the miners and operators would be handed to the United Mine Workers of America by Friday morning.

"We expected to make the report today, but the executive committee stated that it desired further time to gather together more operators, and this was given. Just what the result

MRS. SLOCUM KILLED; GENERAL BELL INJURED

Their Automobile Hit by Runaway Car, Dashed Wife of Major in Array.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Brig. Gen. J. F. Bell, U. S. A., chief of staff of the United States army, who was injured today in an automobile accident in which Mrs. Hannah J. Slocum, wife of Major Slocum, U. S. A., was killed, was reported tonight to be resting comfortably. One rib was broken and he [illegible] of [illegible] scalp wounds, but no internal injuries have been discovered and no complications have set in.

Major Slocum, who is a member of the Seventh cavalry and now stationed at Governors Island, New York, arrived tonight. His brother, Jeremiah W. Slocum, who is also at Governors Island, and Theodore, a student at Princeton University.

No further arrangements have been made for the funeral of Mrs. Slocum than that the body will be taken after the inquest to the home of her birth, Cambridge, N. Y.

The accident happened in Washington Park, Brooklyn, when the Bell car was being driven by a trolley car driven by Meyer Ehrlich, of New York. Mrs. Slocum died in the arms of her husband in a nearby house. Her husband is a graduate of the Military academy, class of 1882. He was driving with the Bells.

Surgeon Weld of the army, who was driving the Bell car, was also injured.

FOLLOWERS HAD HARD TIME TO KEEP UP.

Tropical Storms and Intense Heat Added to Discomfort Story of 100-Mile March.

Correspondence to the Associated Press.

GONDOKORO, Sudan, Feb. 18. (Friday)—It has been no easy task for those who have attempted to follow Colonel Roosevelt through the wilds of Africa. His last march from Nimule to Gondokoro, a distance of about 100 miles and his approach yesterday was heralded with blasts of Chief Keriba's bugle band. The journey occupied ten days and it was made over difficult roads with a terrific heat almost blinding the eyes at times, and on occasions in a storm that blew with tropical fury.

Colonel Roosevelt reached Nimule on February 4 with the stars and stripes floating over the steam launch that conveyed him up the river. Soon he was engaged in answering correspondence. People little realized what an infliction mail can some times be during a hunting expedition. On this particular morning Colonel Roosevelt wrote some 40 letters between breakfast and lunch.

It has been a fixed and unbroken rule of Colonel Roosevelt's procedure to permit no one outside the regular members of his party and his attendants to accompany him on safari. But no restrictions were put on the privilege of proceeding ahead of the expedition, or following on behind—at a reasonable and respectable distance.

The first camp from Nimule is at Asswa river, ten miles distant. The expedition found the road hilly, stony and waterless, but well wooded. The river, though 100 yards wide was easily forded, and the travelers spent the night in well constructed grass houses, put up specially for their use. The next marches were to Kiriff, through over 11 miles of undulating country, and to Uma Khor, 19 miles further. There were evidences of much game and the recent spoor of elephant was frequently passed. The heat was terrific, such medicines as salol, castor oil capsules and menthol being melted into a conglomerate mass that played havoc with the receptacle in which they were being carried.

On the evening of the third day a heavy wind and rain squall suddenly came on, tipping one of the tents to ribbons.

Dangers Everywhere.

On the march to Nyonki Jardin the correspondent of the Associated Press chanced upon the tracks of elephants that appeared to be no more than an hour old. The safari was sent on and the service of a local tracker were engaged. Soon it was discovered that there was one big bull in the herd and a few calves. The footprints told this tale plainly. In all, the tracks of one bull, three calves and 15 cows were made out. These were followed with great caution over the country leading toward a range of wooded hills. Presently a partially dried river was reached and the pursuit was continued through a fairly open country dotted here and there with mimosa thorn trees.

Suddenly the tracker fell flat and motioned to the correspondent to do likewise. As they glanced three cow elephants were to be seen less than 100 feet away. They looked immense and hearts almost stood still, as it was realized that the wind was blowing in their direction carrying the scent. The danger was great and a means of safe retreat was sought. The search revealed that this particular spot was the center of a small elephant herd. A terrifying minute or two and then began a backward crawl and eventually, after what seemed hours, the two reached the outskirts of the herd, just as they began to move away. They were so silent, so huge and so capable of dealing destruction that the escape seemed awe-inspiring.

However, another series of circles was made around the herd in search for the bull, but again the trackers got among the cows, and as the wind seemed to change every few minutes, it was agreed to give up the hunt. Cows with calves at their side are not the tameet of elephants.

Lokka Legga, eight and one-half miles from Nyonki Jardin, was the next stop, and from there to Ledgus several big villages are on the road, but it is a dangerous country, for the water is bad and all the cattle have died from the poison of the tsetse fly. Special precaution had to be taken to protect the members of the expedition from this dread danger.

The next march was to Keriba's village on the banks of the Kit river. On the opposite side of the Nile is the Belgian station of Redjaf. Old Keriba, a friendly chief, whose bugle is the apple of his eye, was keeping noisy watch for Colonel Roosevelt, of whose prowess he had heard. For many weeks the band had been practicing the various military calls and they greeted the arrival of the ex-President with a series of calls of every variety and a considerable program of bugle marches.

Gondokoro is but 16 miles from this point and Chief Keriba and his band led Colonel Roosevelt and his party in triumph to Gondokoro.

EludES HIS PURSUERS

Remarkable Physical Endurance Shown by Indiana Jailbreaker in Three Days' Flight.

LOUDENVILLE, Ohio, March 23.—Having exhausted two posses and a couple of bloodhounds, Robert Green, former southern Indiana banker, who broke jail at Elyria on Monday, is tonight lost in the wild, broken country south of here.

He is believed to be making for Knox county, where the nature of the ground is such that it will be almost impossible for him to be followed except on foot.

In making his escape Green fractured the skull of a turnkey with an iron bar.

The physical endurance shown by the escaped prisoner is almost incredible. Although past middle life, he has maintained his headlong flight for three days with practically no stop for rest and apparently without tiring. He has worn down more than a dozen men who pursued him, ridden one horse to exhaustion, and driven another to a like condition.

FATALITIES NOW NUMBER 49

Rock Island Wreck Death List Is Still Growing—Several More Victims Identified.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., March 23.—That the death list from Monday's railroad wreck near Green Mountain will be increased to 50 before morning is indicated tonight by the condition of L. M. Wallin of Washburn, N. D., who is expected to die.

A. H. Nagel, Waterloo, Ia., and Charles E. Davis, Minneapolis, died today, increasing the fatalities to 49.

Mayor J. R. Mathews of Menominie, Wis., and John Moody tonight identified the bodies of John Moody, Jr., of Red Cedar, Wis., and Frank Hints of Spring Brook, Wis. Mrs. Mary Parish of Sedalia, Mo., was identified today among the dead. Milton Parish, her husband, first identified as G. W. Blair of Sedalia, also is among the dead.

Mrs. Annie Houseman, Minneapolis, was also found among the dead today.

PUBLIC LANDS WITHDRAWN

WASHINGTON, March 23—Secretary Ballinger temporarily withdrew 56,659 acres of public lands from all forms of disposition today in aid of proposed legislation affecting disposal of water power sites on the public domain. Among the withdrawals are the following:

3,560 acres along White river, Colorado.

5,480 acres along Grape creek, Colorado.

GIVE STRIKE ORGANIZER A COLD RECEPTION

FRANKLIN, N. H., March 23—The machinery of the city government was employed unexpectedly to prevent a strike of International Paper mill employes here when the city council requested John H. Mahlin, president of the International Sulphite Pulp and Paper Mill workers to leave town.

Mahlin had been previously escorted out of Rumford Falls, Me., where he was urging a sympathetic strike.

ENGLAND REFUSES SUPPORT OF AMERICAN PROPOSAL

LONDON, March 23—Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, explained in the house of commons today that the British government was unable to actively support the American government of the Chinchow-Aigun railroad plan because of the provisions of the Anglo-Russian agreement of 1899 which had never been formally abrogated.

COOK WITHOUT FUNDS AND HEALTH BROKEN

Arctic Explorer in no Condition to Fight for Honors He Still Claims, Writes His Wife

BELLINGHAM, Wash., March 23—Dr. William H. Axtell, a warm personal friend of Frederick A. Cook, has received a letter from Mrs. Cook written in Valparaiso, Chile, in which she says the doctor is broken in health, without funds and unable to continue his fight to establish his claim that he discovered the pole, Dr. Axtell said today.

"Mrs. Cook tells me in her letter that Cook made considerable money out of his trip when he first arrived in New York but he spent it in defending himself against the bitter attacks from his enemies before the Copenhagen decision was made public.

"Cook left New York later to escape contumely, Mrs. Cook says, and to go before the board of inquiry at Copenhagen as his own representative. Mrs. Cook followed him, met him in England, found him a nervous wreck and very ill.

"She writes that it was her fault that he did not appear publicly at the time he was unfavorably reported on. She says she took him to Holland, France, Italy and then to Spain where they embarked for Buenos Ayres.

"From Buenos Ayres they went around Cape Horn to Chile, and have remained there ever since. Cook is still very ill and will be in no condition to take up his fight for the honors which he still says should have been his."

Dr. Axtell added that, according to the letter, the explorer and his family will return quietly to New York and will settle down for a quiet life.

"Mrs. Cook says," he continued, "that her husband has no funds with which to go to the Arctic regions after the proofs required by the University of Copenhagen and if he had the necessary cash he knows of no one he could trust to do the work for him."

NEW YORK, March 23.—Captain B. S. Osbon, secretary of the Arctic club of America and one of Cook's staunchest supporters, said tonight that Dr. Axtell was one of Dr. Cook's closest friends and that the letter received by Axtell undoubtedly was reliable.

QUICK WORK SAVES HORSE

Carriage Driver Sees Barn in Flames. Arouses Owner and Animal Is Rescued.

A valuable horse in a barn at the corner of Sixteenth street and Grant avenue, West Colorado Springs, would undoubtedly have perished by fire and the residence adjoining would probaby have been badly damaged, with serious danger threatening its occupants, had it not been for the timely presence of a carriage driver shortly after 2 o'clock this (Thursday) morning. The driver, in passing, saw the barn aflame, and after loudly knocking on the front door of the house, aroused the tenants. They then opened the barn door and released the horse, also saving a buggy. The west side and central fire departments were summoned by telephone, and speedily put out the flames.

The occupants of the house are quoted as claiming that the fire is of incendiary origin. The name of the tenant was not learned.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Bleached flour by any other name is bleached flour still and no statement upon the label can bring it within the law. That was the terse warning flashed out today from the department of agriculture by Secretary James Wilson to the millers.

"There has been no change in the attitude of this department," said the secretary in his notice.

MRS. BELMONT GOING ABROAD

So strenuous has been the campaign of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont for equal suffrage that it is reported she is on the verge of a physical breakdown from overwork. She will leave early in April for England to spend the summer in some quiet place, with her daughter, the Duchess of Marlborough.

Along with these reports comes a bit of gossip to the effect that Mrs. Belmont's breakdown is at least partially due to her belief that Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Equal Franchise society, is trying to stir up trouble for her.

Mrs. Belmont has been for six months the hardest worked person in New York city. She has not only taken an interest in suffrage but she has supervised the work on her house, has attended to her charities and has entertained extensively in her social life.

If there are sediments and settlements.

Passages too frequent, scanty, painful.

It's time then to Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's have done great work in Colorado Springs.

Mrs. J. W. Dorsiderk, 113 Sixth St., Colorado Springs, Colo., says, "I was subject to attacks of backache for several years and the kidney secretions were very scanty. When a neighbor told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply, and after taking the contents of two boxes, I was completely cured. This happened over seven years ago, and that shows I have never had a return of the trouble. I always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone I hear complaining of kidney disorders."

BUCKLEY'S MEMORY FAILS AT INQUIRY

INSURANCE LAWYER PROVES POOR WITNESS.

Received $30,000 a Year for His Services, but Cannot Remember How He Earned His Fees

NEW YORK, March 23—Although William H. Hotchkiss, state superintendent of insurance, was still unable to uncover positive proof that money was used to buy votes at Albany in connection with fire insurance legislation, he developed some interesting facts at today's session of the inquiry in regard to the work of William H. Buckley.

Buckley is a lawyer of Albany, who started his practice in 1901. Three years later, according to testimony, he was getting well on towards $30 000 a year from insurance companies for his legal services

Before he was admitted to the bar, Buckley was connected with the state insurance department; from 1892 to 1896 he was a clerk in the department, and then until 1901 he was third deputy insurance superintendent.

While he was deputy superintendent, according to his testimony today, he obtained three loans amounting to $61,000 from the Phenix Fire Insurance company of Brooklyn, of which the late George Sheldon, for years executive agent for the fire insurance companies at Albany, was president. For just such loans as these Sheldon was deposed from his company several months ago, was indicted and died a broken-hearted man at Greenwich, Conn, without being brought to trial

Buckley found it profitable to represent fire insurance companies, but he testified today that he never appeared in court for them, and never went before legislative committees, in fact, he could not remember just what he had done. He could only say that in a general way he acted as counsel for the companies and he had kept no record whatever of any transaction He was under annual retainer from several companies

In 1904 he received between $25,000 and $30,000, of which about $15,000 was from foreign insurance companies According to evidence produced he also received various large sums from domestic concerns This was in the year that the Grady reinsurance bill, which benefited foreign reinsurance companies by reducing the amount of their reserves, was passed Domestic companies were opposing the bill and Mr Hotchkiss asked the witness if he was not getting money from both sides

Mr Buckley had no opinion on that subject, he would not even admit that any of the money paid to him was in connection with the bill He said he knew little about the bill, and when Mr Hotchkiss asked him if he had paid any money to legislators he said: "That's absurd, no, sir"

Preceding Buckley Carl Schreiner, United States manager of the Munich Reinsurance company, and Carl Sturhahn, American manager of the Prussian Insurance company, were on the stand They told of payments to Buckley by their companies of various sums during a number of years.

FOREST RESERVE BILL REPORTED FAVORABLY

FLOWER FESTIVALS GROWING IN FAVOR

NEW CITIES ADOPT PLEASING CUSTOM EVERY YEAR.

Southern California in Lead—"Wild Flower Excursions" a Colorado Institution

By Frederic J. Haskin

In the past few years flower festivals have become increasingly popular and each season finds new cities added to the list of those already noted for their efforts in this direction It is not strange that southern California with its glorious sunshine and ever blossoming plants should lead in these festivals Pasadena, tucked snugly away in the foothills, has become famous for its festivals on New Years day at which time it is a mecca for fugitives from Jack Frost in the east and north

The Pasadena festival is divided into three parts, the parade in the early afternoon the races directly following, and a grand ball in the evening The parade is often over a mile long, each carriage automobile and float being actually buried under its load of flowers of every kind and hue Sixty thousand violets and 5 000 carnations have been used in decorating a single float in one of these parades Hardly less of an attraction is the chariot race which is a careful reproduction of those held in Rome and Athens

The Los Angeles festival is held in the spring and usually lasts about a week The name, La Fiesta de las Flores, is lived up to in every respect. A parade of which Los Angeles will ever be proud was that in which President and Mrs. McKinley occupied the place of honor Their carriage was decorated with 10 000 white carnations, and the horses and harness were spotless white. The choosing of the queen of the carnival is an important social event. A feature of the Los Angeles floral parade which will be sure to linger in the memory of the visitor is the Chinese dragon, always proudly displayed by numerous sons of Chinatown. This is a work of art, being hand-embroidered and measuring 500 feet

Santa Clara "Blossom Day."

The festivals in the Santa Clara valley deserve a place by themselves Here the white blossoms of the plum trees and the delicate pink of the peach blooms form a perfect sea of beauty for about two weeks in the spring The festival commences in the little foothill village of Saratoga, where the first wave of bloom begins, and as the wave sweeps on down the valley, each little village takes its turn at celebrating "Blossom Day" The principal feature is a drive through the blossom-covered streets where young girls bombard each passing vehicle with flowers. Decorated carriages of all kinds are pressed into service and visitors are treated to a unique and most beautiful spectacle As it depends upon the season, the date of the event fluctuates, the earliest it has been celebrated being March 18, and the latest April 4.

As a sharp contrast to these days of pleasure in California is the custom carried out in Mexico on All Saints' day. All the cemeteries are filled with people who camp out, covering the graves of their departed with floral tokens, and afterwards eating picnic luncheons on the "dead tables" spread for the occasion. The day is not intended to be one of pleasure but it nevertheless assumes that aspect for those who see it for the first time

Promptly at noon on the seventh of last June Mrs. Taft pressed the button which officially opened the third annual rose festival at Portland, Ore., and the reign of the rose king began The festival lasted six days and was turned into a time of general merry making Automobile horse and "Spirit of the West" parades vied with one another in their splendor In all the parades the vehicles and floats were beautifully decorated with blooms, while Portland further showed its ability to raise beautiful roses in a competitive exhibition which was held in the California building at the fair grounds. A few days previous to the opening of the festival a bouquet made up of the choicest roses to be found in the "Rose City" was sent to Washington to be presented to the President by Senators Bourne and Chamberlain shortly before he pressed the button

Continual Festival in Colorado.

On account of its myriad of wild flowers, Colorado has a continual festival that is provided by nature In the pass and in many other regions great meadows are covered with brilliant primitive blossoms During the summer the railroads run weekly "Wild Flower Excursions" for the benefit of the tourists. Open observation cars are used and frequent stops are made in order that the passengers may gather flowers and take pictures

As far distant as is Asbury Park from New Orleans, both as to miles and social customs, the annual festival in the great resort is a growth of the Mardi Gras idea. Asbury Park terminates each season with a grand carnival with Queen Titania and Prince Charming duly surrounded by their court of beauty On this occasion the Baby Parade forms the principal feature and the walks are lined with thousands of people who cheer as the tots go by Mark Twain said on one occasion "We haven't all had the good fortune to be ladies, but we've all been babies The Baby Parade at Asbury Park is indeed a great event an occasion when all grown-ups are merely wall flowers"

The flower festival has reached even Jones street Probably Jones street has an unfamiliar sound but, situated between Fourth and Bleecker streets west of Sixth avenue, in New York city, it houses seventeen hundred souls and bears the reputation of having but two seasons winter and summer But last year a new order was ushered in, and in the middle of May a spring festival was held Here Robin Hood and his merry men held sway, the brown drones cavorted to their hearts' content and the daffodils and fairies danced and wound the May Pole. And above all there were actual flowers, wreaths and wands. Beside the festivals of California it might fade into insignificance, but to Jones street it was as magnificent as a carnival of the gods.

In Other Countries.

Japan with its flower calendar is always observing some festival or other The coming of the cherry blossom is the call for ode-writing and the carnival spirit The chrysanthemum is the national emblem. The Dangozaka in Tokio is the florists' section, and there the annual chrysanthemum show is held This usually consists of acres of magnificent blossoms, with a few historical and legendary episodes pictured in the blooms but after the Russo-Japanese war all this was changed, and the show ground assumed the aspect of a huge battlefield Everywhere were set pieces showing life-size soldiers engaged in mortal combat with their enemies. The show continued for two months, the flowers being kept in a perfect condition by being planted in bamboo skeletons and watered each night

While it was not exactly a flower festival, the Feast of Liberty held in Beirut and other cities in Turkey in 1908, in celebration of the victory of the Young Turks, was the most remarkable demonstration in the history of that country For three days the people of the cities went wild "Freedom" was the cry on every lip, the streets and houses were gayly decorated with bunting and flowers and inscriptions of a startling character were to be seen in conspicuous places. For the first time in thirty-one years public gatherings were permitted, and everywhere there were to be found groups of Turks, each with its own speechmaker. Enemy feasted with enemy and the word freedom was hurled about as if it had been just coined

In the province of Quebec, and in Montreal especially, the procession of Corpus Christi is an event of considerable importance This was first begun by Pope Urban in Italy about 1262 because of a miracle that was performed. Since that time it has become the great open-air celebration of the Roman Catholic church The parade is made up of the various congregations religious societies, children from the orphan asylums little girls dressed for their first communion, nuns theologians and monks The highest dignataries of the church one of whom carries the golden ostensorium containing the Host walk under a gorgeous canopy At the end of the march is a reposoir embowered in a mass of flowers and green

Hawaii is a land of fair skies and gorgeous flowers It is so favored in this respect that Honolulu may be said to have a perpetual flower festival The visitor upon arriving or departing is decorated with wreaths of brilliant blossoms The native dancing girls wear garlands instead of jewels The landscape, sometimes hidden behind a veil of clouds flashes with many hued resplendence when the view is cleared Some day, when the paths of the ocean become more frequented by those in quest of the novel and the beautiful it will not be surprising if Honolulu becomes the scene of the greatest flower carnival in the world It has only to realize upon its natural advantages to produce the premier celebration of this kind

A series of state struggles instead of the threatened nationwide strike of soft coal miners for increased pay will be the outcome of the present negotiations between miners and operators of the central competitive field if information obtained today from a reliable source in the operators council is correct.

According to the report the joint conference of Ohio, Indiana and western Pennsylvania mine owners and employes will terminate without a definite agreement The Pennsylvania and Indiana operators and miners then will hold state conferences and probably agree.

The Ohio operators it is expected, will continue to resist the miners' demands and it is predicted that the first strike if any comes, will be of 60,000 union mine workers of this state.

Sick Headache

"I have been a frequent sufferer from sick headache for years, yet never would use headache tablets. My son persuaded me to use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills during one of these attacks, and to my surprise it gave me speedy relief."

MRS. LOUISE LEWELLYN, Powell, S. D.

When the disturbance which causes headache affects the nerves at the base of the brain, which connect with the large nerve that ties to the stomach, heart and lungs, it frequently causes headache with vomiting—sick headache.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills soothe the irritated brain nerves and the cause of pain is relieved.

What the Press Agents Say

LE BRUN GRAND OPERA NEXT WEEK.

On another page of this morning's issue of the Gazette will be found the complete program of the operatic scenes which the Le Brun Grand Opera company will present at the Opera House Monday afternoon and evening. This program is of especial interest not only to music students and music lovers but to the general public as well for it marks the first professional performance in this city of the "Il Trovatore" and "Martha" selections.

The story of "Il Trovatore" although generally well known, is of particular interest at the present time and following is a very brief sketch of the argument. Leonora, lady in waiting to the queen, is loved by Count di Luna and Manrico, the troubadour. Secretly she favors Manrico who is the Count's enemy. Manrico belongs to a band of gypsies of which Acuzena is a member. Acuzena is the daughter of the woman who had stolen Manrico away from court, several years ago, and she is seeking revenge upon Count di Luna, Manrico's brother, through Manrico, who does not know his relationship to his rival for Leonora's hand. Manrico on learning that Acuzena's mother was burned at the stake by di Luna is seized by a fierce madness and swears revenge. Just as Manrico starts off to find the count he is met by a messenger who tells him that Leonora, thinking him dead, is about to assume the veil and enter a convent. Manrico rushes to the convent just in time to snatch her away from the clutches of the church and of di Luna. However Luna puts Manrico in prison and despite his promise to Leonora not to kill him, he has him beheaded, only to find out just after the execution that he has killed his own brother. The curtain falls on the dying Leonora who has poisoned herself and as Acuzena cries "Mother thou art avenged."

AL. G. FIELD SEATS TODAY.

The seats for both performances of Al. G. Field's minstrels which are to be given at the Opera House Saturday afternoon and evening, will be placed on sale this morning at the following scale of prices: night, 50c 75c, $1.00 and $1.50; matinee 25c 50c 75c, and $1.00. The interest in the engagement has been so great that Field has consented to give an extra performance Saturday matinee. As Field is now recognized as presenting the best minstrel production on the road, it is expected that he will be greeted by two packed houses especially since his is the last minstrel show to appear here this season.

The entertainment opens with a band his harp of a "[illegible]" by his court. In this scene is sung "The Evening Star" from Wagner's "Tannhauser," by a noted baritone, specially engaged for this single song. As this is one of the prettiest numbers of the program and will not be repeated under any circumstances those who wish to hear it must be in their seats before the curtain rises for no one will be seated during the selection. Other beautiful scenes in the first part show the Fiesta of Flowers, the Court of Momus and a brilliantly lighted banquet room, which presents modern minstrelsy in contrast to minstrelsy in David's time.

The soloists of the Field's minstrels include the following well known minstrel men: George T. Martin, Paul La Londe, Solon de Miller, Walter Sherrod, Henry Lazarus, Charles Reinhardt, Wilson Miller, Norman Stanley and many others. Doc Quigley is still with the show and will introduce his famous specialty of buck and wing dancing.

THE DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE OF MUSIC

Gertrude Van Dyke who is making a big hit at the Majestic this week might well be called the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde of music, although the comparison is somewhat unfair in that neither of her vocal personalities is bad. On the contrary each is distinctly good. Miss Van Dyke has two separate and distinct voices, each with an individuality of quality that makes their possession all the more remarkable. One is a soprano, the other a baritone, and neither is in any way a falsetto. As a matter of fact Miss Van Dyke's voice is a combination of baritone, contralto and soprano for she has the most unusual range of three octaves and two notes—from lower C to upper C.

Aside from this phase of it her act is a rare novelty. She appears in appropriate costume—a very neat costume in the way as are all she wears—and imitates a prima donna. Then she steps behind a chair and presto reappears as a soubrette the impersonation being better than the real thing. Then she makes another instantaneous change right before the footlights and in the costume of a cavalier using a mantle for the female part, sings a duet as a leading man and leading lady. She sings well, very well, also she is pretty can act and looks well in all her costumes.

MME. ANTOINETTE LE BRUN,
Formerly Prima Donna of Savage's English Grand Opera Company. Her Own Troupe Will Appear at the Opera House, Monday, Matinee and Night, in Scenes from "Il Trovatore" and "Martha."

COLORADO & SOUTHERN BUYS NEW EQUIPMENT

Prepares to Handle Increasing Business.—To Test Burlington's Type of Locomotives.

DENVER, March 23.—The Times today says:

The Colorado and Southern has placed orders for nearly $2,000,000 worth of new equipment to take care of its increasing business.

The Burlington system has sent one of its big Mallet compound locomotives, said to be one of the largest in the world, to Denver, to be tested on the Colorado and Southern. If the test proves satisfactory an order likely will be placed for 20 of these mammoth engines, which will cost nearly $700,000.

W. A. Webb general purchasing agent and assistant to the vice president, has returned from Chicago, where he had been in connection with placing orders. The company ordered seven switching engines, 1,500 freight cars, a dining car and other equipment. The order also included two of the big "S-2" types of locomotives which are used in passenger service on the Burlington and which helped that road to earn a national reputation for running trains on time. These will also be tested on the Colorado and Southern.

CALLS CONGER A MARTYR

Senator's Counsel Declares He Sacrificed Himself "for the Good of His Country."

ALBANY, N. Y., March 23.—"A hero, a martyr, a political and social suicide for the good of his country."

This was the wreath placed upon the head of Senator Ben Conger today by his chief counsel James W. Osborne, when concluding his argument in the senate investigation of Conger's bribery charges against Senator Allds.

Both Osborne and Judge Augustus Van Wyck who delivered the first half of the closing argument for Conger, warned the senators against neglecting public opinion.

"Public indignation cannot be kept out of this court room," asserted Osborne. "Throughout the length of this United States I see a revival of public conscience. I see it in Washington. I see it in Albany, thank God. I even see it in that last-expected place, Pittsburg."

Although there was some talk today of a change in the program, the senate still plans not to vote on the question of sustaining the Conger charges until Tuesday, March 29.

MR. WALSH PASSES THROUGH ATLANTA

ATLANTA, Ga., March 23.—The special train bearing Thomas F. Walsh, the millionaire mine owner, to his home in Washington, passed through Atlanta today. The train laid over here two hours to give Mr. Walsh a brief resting spell.

Mr. Walsh's condition, it was stated, was but slightly improved and it was said absolute quiet for a time was deemed necessary.

The special is expected to make record time between Atlanta and Washington.

MEATS STILL ADVANCING

NEW YORK, March 23.—Retail butchers in New York city have this week again increased the prices of practically all the meats which they handle by about 2 cents a pound. They have done so in response to the steady increase in wholesale prices. It is admitted on all sides that prices now range at a higher level than has ever been known since the Civil war and that the top notch has not yet been reached.

COMMITTEE ENTANGLED

Has Lang Resigned as Democratic Chairman?—"Rump" Organization Complicates Matters

There seems to be some dispute among local Democrats as to whether or not George Lang, who recently removed to Pueblo, has resigned as chairman of the county central committee. Following the assertion of a well-known Democrat, Tuesday, that Lang has tendered his resignation and that a meeting will be held April 9 to select his successor, E. P. Hufferd, secretary of the committee, comes out with a statement denying the allegation.

According to Mr. Hufferd, Lang has not resigned, and, as chairman, will call a meeting of the committee before April 15, at which time he may vacate his office and allow the meeting to elect a successor.

Mr. Hufferd also says that Mrs. M. L. Henderson, who has been reported as vice chairman, and who, it has been said, will call a meeting of the committee in the near future, is not a member at all, and therefore has no power to issue a call. In explaining her position, Hufferd points out that she was merely chairman of the "rump" committee organized about two years ago, when the Burns-Masterson faction bolted, and claims that this committee was never recognized at the state convention held in Pueblo shortly afterwards, but that official recognition was given to Lang as chairman of the regular Democratic committee.

Lang has requested a list of the committeemen in order to call the meeting.

TALKS ON CHILD TRAINING

Newton N. Riddell Gives Valuable Suggestions in Lecture at First Methodist Church.

Newton N. Riddell spoke at the First Methodist church last night on "Child Training by Suggestion."

Mr. Riddell is considered an authority on child culture, and his lecture was listened to with great interest. He told how to awaken latent faculties, improve the memory, eradicate undesirable traits and develop the elements of honesty and self-control.

"To employ suggestion in child culture," said Mr. Riddell, "the parent or teacher must be in earnest. He should explain to the child what he is desired to do, so as to get his complete confidence and co-operation. The child should be made to feel he has the love and sympathy of the parent, and that the two are to work together for a definite purpose with all assurance that they will succeed in overwhelming the weakness, or in establishing the desired trait."

MAY HAVE TO REFUND

Senate Gets Report Regarding Salaries Paid Rangers Who Attended School

As a result of a report just submitted to the Senate by Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture, it is probable that the forest rangers who attended the Colorado College School of Forestry will have to refund the money they received from the government while attending the class. The report does not deal only with the case in Colorado Springs, but with similar instances where forest rangers attended schools of forestry last winter in Utah, Montana and Washington. It is claimed that $9,125 was paid in salaries and $421 for traveling expenses to forest rangers while they were attending the schools. Much interest was taken by the rangers in the Colorado College course, which was continued by all but one of the men who began it, even after their pay was stopped.

MANY TO GO ON TRIP

Real Estate Men Will Inspect Fountain Valley Improvements Next Saturday Afternoon

Many members of the Colorado Springs Real Estate exchange will probably make the automobile trip to Fountain next Saturday to look over the improvements of the Fountain Valley Land and Irrigation company near that city. W. E. Johnson, secretary of the organization, is making the plans for the excursion. The members of the exchange that have signified their intention of having representatives on the trip to date are: Norton Investment company, McCreery and Fyffe, A. P. Martin & Co., W. W. Williamson, S. T. Johnson, A. B. Williams & Co., Sun Realty Co., State Realty Co., Morah Investment Co. and National Realty Co.

Members of many other real estate firms in the city will probably go. The party will leave Colorado Springs at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

TO ESTABLISH SHELTER

Salvation Army Proposes to Furnish Home for About 60 Men—May Build Later.

Captain Samuel Carlton, who has charge of the relief department of the Colorado Springs Salvation Army, announced yesterday that a shelter to accommodate from 50 to 60 men will probably be established in the city within a short time. Colonel Holland of Denver is soon to pay the city a visit, and at that time a definite decision will be made, although the improvement is said to be practically assured. The proposition under consideration is to lease a large building for the first two years, and at the termination of that period, to build a structure.

KINNEY LEAVES FOR EAST

President W. P. Kinney of the school board left last night for the east to investigate the qualifications of Dr. William Estabrook, Chancellor of South Norwalk, Conn., and other candidates for the office of superintendent of schools in Colorado Springs. Mr. Kinney is making the trip in pursuance of action taken by the board at a special meeting last Tuesday afternoon.

RIO GRANDE TO ANNOUNCE ATTITUDE ON DEPOT SOON

H. G. Clark, general manager of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, was in Colorado Springs last Sunday and conferred with members of the committee in charge of the project to secure a union depot for the city. He announces, on his departure, that he will probably be in a position to make known the attitude of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad upon the subject within a few days.

Chairman H. H. Seldomridge of the committee said last night that nothing definite has been accomplished, and that there is nothing new in the committee's negotiations to be made public at this time.

APPOINTS COMMITTEEMEN

The Republican committeemen for the two Manitou precincts have been appointed by H. H. Grafton, chairman of the Republican central committee of Manitou, as follows:

Precinct No. 2—H. M. Ogilbee, C. A. Pollen, Fred Herberg.

MEN ARE JUST AS PARTIAL TO FINE CLOTHES AS WOMEN

"We find that after all, men are just as anxious to be well dressed and are fully as particular about their clothes as women," remarked Mr. May, of The May Co., this morning. "Of course in some ways men are different, but it all amounts to the same thing in the end."

A glance over the May Co.'s store ads... goes to bear out this assertion very fully, for never has it been said that there were such truly tasteful and stylish garments for men as are being shown this week in this store. A wide variety of patterns and fabrics is absolutely essential to the modern clothing store these days, in the opinion of Mr. May, but... of the care that men are now devoting to their dress.

The spring display of men's suits and haberdashery at the May Co., is handsome and metropolitan to the highest degree and offers any man a wide variety of choice in all the clothes and "fixings" he needs for Easter wear. The policy of The May Co. of carrying high class merchandise, fairly priced, is accountable in no small degree for the unusual success of this store.

WILL INVEST HERE

Equitable Life Assurance Society to Place $1,000,000 in Colorado Securities.

Paul Morton, former secretary of the navy, and now president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, passed through Colorado Springs yesterday en route to Denver, in the private car of President E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fe railroad. The car was attached to Santa Fe train No. 5, and during the brief time that Mr. Morton was in the city he said that he is in this state to invest at least $1,000,000 of the Equitable Assurance company's money in Colorado securities. He said that he has been spending some time in the vicinity of Holly and that he is well satisfied with the outlook there.

"I am not ready at present," said Mr. Morton, "to state just where I shall invest money, but I plan to place about $1,000,000 in Colorado in the next few days."

DENVER, March 23.—Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society and former secretary of the navy, spent today in Denver and left tonight for Mexico where, it is said, he will inspect a new railroad which may become a link in the route to the Isthmus of Panama. Mr. Morton was recently elected vice president of the Pan-American railroad. Mr. Morton today purchased for the Equitable $600,000 worth of Denver sewer bonds.

A BOLD STEP

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broad-cast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines.

This Dr. Pierce has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits and placed them in a class all by themselves by making them remedies OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same.

From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, overworked, "run-down," worn and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the use of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

TACKLES WRONG MAN

Walter Harris, Youthful Holdup, Captured by His Would-Be Victim—In County Jail

When Walter Harris, a 16-year-old boy, who claims to come from Somerset, Neb., decided to hold up some one, he picked the wrong man in Joe Green, a young rancher living north of the city, and as a result is in the county jail awaiting a hearing Saturday morning at 10 o'clock on a charge of highway robbery. He was arraigned before Justice Toombs yesterday afternoon.

According to Green, who swore out the complaint, Harris came to his ranch, near Breed, Tuesday night, and asked for something to eat. When Green agreed to give Harris food, he claims that the latter drew a gun and tried to hold him up. Green, however, ran into the house and Harris ran the other way. Green secured a Winchester rifle, mounted a horse and gave chase. He caught Harris after a short ride, disarmed him and then held him prisoner until the arrival of a deputy sheriff.

SPRINGS MEN INTERESTED?

Report That Company Will Bore for Oil On Land Just West of Colorado City.

That a company of Colorado Springs real estate men and capitalists, which has been organized for some time, and has had experts examining the property just west of Colorado City will begin to drill for oil there within the next 30 days, is a report in local real estate circles. For several months reports have been afloat, concerning a number of parties about to drill for oil and mineral waters in this vicinity. and H. J. Ro , town clerk of Manitou, who leased property near there, has declared his belief that oil can be found. Experts who have examined the property claim that oil in good quantities may be found at a depth of probably 500 feet, but none of the drillers has attempted this distance.

WILY AUTO SPEEDERS

Use Side Streets as Race Course, Knowing Police to Be on Colorado Avenue.

That automobile drivers with a mania for speeding are beginning to utilize the side thoroughfares, Lincoln, Jefferson and Washington avenues, for speedways to escape the vigilance of the night police who are busy looking after those on Colorado avenue, is the complaint of residents on these streets. It is said that the drivers know that the police cannot get onto the side streets in time to catch them, and with a wide street and no car tracks, the autos have been making some pretty good time Several instances of narrow escapes of pedestrians and people in carriages have been reported.

WARDS OFF BYSTANDERS

Joe Ennis Prevents Interference while His Brother Fights Fellow Expressman.

A fist fight yesterday noon over the possession of the corner for their [illegible] wagons at the corner of Fifth street and Colorado avenue may result in heavy fines and probable jail sentences for William R. Ennis and [illegible] Webb, well-known expressmen of this city. Joe Ennis, brother of the latter, may be fined for abetting the fight and preventing bystanders from stopping the contest The trouble, which is of long standing, came to a head when, as Webb claims, Ennis blocked his team and wagon in his place, and refused to move when requested. Then the encounter began and when several bystanders tried to stop the fight in the center of the business district, it is said that Joe Ennis almost fought some of them in his behalf. Complaints to have the fight prosecuted warrants were sworn out for the arrest of the trio, and they will be given a hearing this morning in Police Brooks' court.

A Colorado Springs transfer team frightened by an automobile, ran away on Washington avenue yesterday After a run of about a mile the animals stopped. The wagon was not damaged

TRANSACTS ROUTINE

Council Does Little Important Business Mayor Avery Scores The Evening Telegraph

Little business was transacted at the City Council meeting yesterday morning although several subjects came up for lengthy discussion

One of the first topics to come before the Council was a communication from Attorney R L Holland asking that a change be made in the proposed measure relating to bill-posting and distribution of circulars The particular change he asks is that part of the ordinance which now reads

Provided, it shall not be necessary for any resident merchant or manufacturer to obtain a license for the purpose of distributing or posting his own advertisements on billboards owned or used by him for any such purpose," be changed to read, "Provided, It shall not be necessary for any resident merchant or manufacturer to obtain a license for the purpose of distributing his own advertisements or posting the same on billboards owned or used by him for any such purpose," etc

The stand taken by Mr Holland, who represents the electric light and gas companies, is that a number of merchants send out their monthly bills by messenger, accompanying them with advertising matter and that they do not feel they should be made to pay $15 for so doing The matter was referred to City Attorney McKesson and Commissioner Whitaker.

Commissioner E W Frost was granted permission to place an order for 5,000 catfish with a Sugar City, Kan, firm, the fish to be placed in the Pike View reservoirs The fish will cost $100 and will be paid for out of the contingent fund They will be large enough to catch next year

Plat Not Approved.

A plat of the proposed new addition of the Colorado Springs company north of Columbia street and west of Wood Avenue, was presented, but not approved The company offers to lay water mains and sewers in the addition if the city will conduit the El Paso canal through the property This work it is estimated, would cost about $2,500 and, if the company carries out its proposition concerning the mains and sewers the city will receive bids for the conduit work.

The plat of a new addition near Avondale but outside the corporate limits was also presented and discussed The promoters want to buy water from Colorado Springs for their property and are willing to pay the regular rate, plus an increase of 25 per cent The question also arose whether the city had the right to sell the water in this case and the matter will be investigated by the city attorney

Just before the Council adjourned, Mayor Avery brought up the subject of the alleged fight between himself and Water Commissioner McReynolds, calling particular attention to the story appearing in The Evening Telegraph under the heading, "Recall May Be Invoked in Row Between Avery and McReynolds" Tuesday night Mr McReynolds took occasion to deny that there had ever been any trouble between himself and the Mayor, and yesterday morning his statement was borne out, when the Mayor asserted that the Telegraph story is a rank injustice He informed the councilmen that he has taken the matter up with the publisher of The Telegraph McReynolds who was present at the meeting, reiterated his assertion of Tuesday night

HOWARD THE MAN?

Thought to Be the Bogus Agent Who Collected $1 80 Each From Housewives

There were many women visitors at police headquarters yesterday to interview Chief Armstrong in regard to the man who recently visited the city and took orders for enlarging photographs, but who failed to return after securing $1 80 from each of them. Most of those who came, found a picture belonging to them in the collection the police located. Several new victims also reported their troubles with the agent during the day.

According to one of them, the man gave his name as C. E. Howard and an investigation has developed the fact that a man of that name was stopping at the Cucharras House. It was there that the police found the photographs, hidden away under the mattress.

TO IMPROVE ROAD AT COUNTY'S EXPENSE

It was announced yesterday by the commissioners of El Paso county that the road between Colorado Springs and Fountain will be improved at the expense of the county. Portions of the thoroughfare will be regraveled and in some places grading will be done.

The improvement of the road is to be carried on south of Fountain to the county line. County Commissioners Hutchinson and Banta, accompanied by Road Overseer Rodney inspected the road last Tuesday.

Yesterday Commissioner Banta made an inspection of the road between Colorado Springs and the Modern Woodmen sanitarium, where county teams are already at work.

COMPLICATED CASE ON

Judge W. S. Morris to Settle Financial Controversy Between J. M. Smith and A. W. Shelton.

Judge Morris in the district court is hearing evidence in the suit of John M. Smith against Andrew W. Shelton to recover $2,500 which the plaintiff claims is due on the sale of 1,500 shares of stock in the Yosemite Mining Company. The hearing will be resumed today.

Smith, who is a former partner of Shelton in the real estate business, alleges that the latter took his shares in the mining company on the understanding that $500 was all he could sell them for, but that when the sale was consummated Shelton received $2,000 for them. Smith recently obtained an attachment on property supposed to be owned by Mr. and Mrs. Shelton, but it is now claimed that Mrs. Shelton is the sole owner of the property, so that the validity of the attachment is one of the questions to be decided in the present hearing. Smith is represented in the trial by Attorneys Orr and Cunningham while Attorneys Arthur Chenoweth of this city, William Gobin of Rocky Ford and Thomas Hoffmire of Pueblo are looking after the interests of the defendant.

J. Z. WHITE LECTURES

Tells Audience at G. A. R. Hall How to Prevent Strikes. Other Addresses Scheduled

Much interest was taken in a lecture entitled "How to Prevent Strikes" by John Z. White at G. A. R. hall last night. Mr. White spoke under the auspices of the Carpenters union of Colorado Springs and there was a good attendance. He said in part:

Strikes are harmful—not only to the two parties directly involved but also to outsiders. Strikes are in truth incipient war. How to prevent strikes might well read how to prevent war.

Eliminating their more distressing and disastrous features, however, and considering only the wholly peaceful refusal to work, they are still harmful to both parties interested, and to outsiders.

The desire to prevent them should, then, be universal.

Strikes are, directly or indirectly, concerned with wages. If a proper adjustment of the matter of wages can be secured strikes will disappear. The real question involved in a consideration of strikes is that of wages.

A man engages in an industry (or business) and contracts with other men to aid him. How much should he pay them? Some say supply and demand must regulate wages. That is, if men can get more than our business man will pay, they won't work. If he can get men for less, he won't hire. But suppose the men can get no other work. That is the only opportunity, what then? Is this supply and demand? If it is, we will soon all turn socialists.

JOHN Q. WHITE.

We insist that such condition is not unusual, and that it is not legitimate supply and demand. This condition is the essential cause of strikes, and is the result of private monopoly of common rights. It is not the result of the operation of normal demand and supply.

Demand and supply is the only way to discover true wages, but true wages can not be revealed by a monopolized or restricted market. Therefore to the question, how much should our business man pay employes no reply can be given until a free market shall be established.

To avoid strikes, then, we must permit a free market—that is, a market wherein the natural oportunity to produce is equally open to all. This is possible only by the common appropriation of ground rent, thus making it unprofitable to hold land vacant.

There is another method for preventing strikes. Submission. Work, keep quiet, pay your rent. Does any American citizen, in good faith, offer this advice to other citizens?

We are sometimes told that wages are increasing, and figures quoted to prove the assertion. Does any workman need the column of census figures to inform him when he got a raise?

Mr. White will deliver several other lectures while in this city. Early this afternoon he is scheduled to address the students at the High School, and at 4 o'clock he will speak before the meeting of club women at All Souls church. His subject will be "Municipal Corruption." Tonight he speaks to the brotherhood of the First Presbyterian church on "Single Tax."

Saloon fights are in progress at Rifle, Glenwood Springs, Grand Valley, DeBeque and other western slope cities. The women intend to make a determined effort to insure success to the "drys."

FAMILY COUGH SYRUP

Cures Any Cough in Five Hours

NEW PRESCRIPTION HERE

Here is given the most effective cough prescription known to the medical world. It is a mild laxative, acts easily and is what a body needs when suffering with cough and cold on the lungs. All druggists or medicine dealers supply the ingredients. Notice a cough syrups receive fully half the worse by their constipating effects. This prescription not only relieves quickly but it goes into the system that is, the tiny cells and tissues of the throat and lungs, where all coughs and colds are located. Mix well and take a teaspoonful every half hour for four hours. Children take half to one teaspoonful three or four times daily, according to age and severity of cough. A few hours treatment will cure an ordinary cough or bronchitis. Cut this out and give it to some friend who may need it to be saved from an early death by consumption.

S. S. S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

Lying just beneath the outer covering or tissue-skin, is a sensitive membranous flesh in which are imbedded thousands of small blood vessels. It is through these tiny veins and arteries that nutriment is supplied from the blood to the different pores, glands and lymphatics. Thus the skin is kept healthy, and free from all eruption or disease, by pure blood. But when impurities and humors infect the circulation its nourishing properties are diminished and instead of supplying the skin with healthful properties it constantly irritates and diseases the delicate fibres, pores and glands with sharp uratic matter. Then the skin tissues inflame, swell and ulcerate and some form of skin disease appears on the surface. Applying soothing lotions, salves, etc., to the outer eruptions does not purify the blood and therefore the skin trouble can not be cured in this manner. S. S. S. cures all skin diseases by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. It cools the acid heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its rich, nutritious corpuscles, and adds to its purity in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and inflamed by sour impurities is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S. S. S. Cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Poison Oak, boils, pimples, rashes, etc. Book on Skin Diseases free to all who write.

Peary's Own Story

Thrilling Adventures in Arctic Hunting: Preparations for the Long Night

Here in quick, terse language as vivid and dynamic as lightning, Commander Peary describes the great hunting; the stocking up of game food,—deer, musk oxen, and polar bear; the laying-to of the Roosevelt for the long winter night amid the ice, awaiting the Spring and the sunlight for the final dash.

No narrative since Caesar's own book on the Gallic Wars has contained such graphic detail handled in so simple and self-revelatory a style. De Bello Gallico is a Latin Classic; Peary's Discovery of the North Pole, as instalment after instalment appears, is slowly forming the conviction in men's minds that here is an Anglo-Saxon Classic.

The Great Millionaire Mill

The Story of the Southern Pacific Railroad System and the Great Fortunes Created by It

By Charles Edward Russell

For the first time the true record of this powerful organization is recounted, giving information from private letters, court records, etc. Mr. Russell's minute analysis of the careers of Collis P. Huntington, Leland Stanford, Charles Crocker and Mark Hopkins throws a strong searchlight upon American railroad methods; shows how the whole state of California was throttled; how the "ultimate consumer" has had a staggering burden of debt put upon his shoulders to increase his cost of living.

The Vast Riches of Alaska

Will the Morgan-Guggenheim Combination Acquire Them or Will They Benefit the Whole People?

By Bernard S. Rodey

If you read nothing else in the whole month of April we urge you to read this Alaskan sensation. It tells the story of the great natural wealth of Alaska in figures that no mind can grasp. One estimate of the gold, the copper and the coal amounts to $17,079,500,000, and from this the estimates range as high as one trillion, five hundred and thirteen billion, nine hundred and thirty-five million dollars!

Will you and your sons inherit this property? Or will it fall into the hands of the Morgans, the Guggenheims, the Rothschilds and perhaps other great trusts?

MR. TAFT'S SPEECHMAKING.

PRESIDENT TAFT seems to be trying to establish a new record for Presidential speechmaking. According to a Washington correspondent he delivered 243 addresses during the first year of his presidency, which came to an end on March 4, which is 108 more speeches than were made by Mr. Roosevelt in any one year of his term. This average of almost one speech a day is all the more remarkable because Mr. Taft is not an easy speaker. When, as Secretary of War, it became necessary for him to make occasional political addresses he found the task difficult, and although he now talks in public with greater facility than before he became President he unquestionably lacks the capacity which Mr. Roosevelt possesses in such marked degree of talking easily and interestingly at any time and on any subject.

The most striking thing about Mr. Taft as a public speaker is his extreme frankness, and this trait is all the more noteworthy because it is so unusual. Most men who occupy political positions vastly less important than Mr. Taft's are extremely circumspect in their public utterances, saying only the thing which it seems expedient to say or the thing which they know will please their hearers. But it is not so with the President. He is honest in his convictions and sees no reason why he should not declare them frankly and fully whenever he finds himself at the banquet board or on the rear platform of his private train.

TOO MUCH CANDOR.

Undoubtedly this trait springs from the President's innate honesty, but however commendable it may be as an evidence of his frank sincerity it certainly has its practical disadvantages, for it is not the least important reason for some of his present difficulties. For instance, the President, by some process of reasoning, arrived at the conclusion that the Payne Aldrich tariff law is the best tariff law ever enacted by the Republican party, and with him to believe was merely a preliminary step to expressing the belief. So, at a time when it could almost be said that the fate of his administration depended on his public expressions, he repeatedly faced audiences of Middle-Western progressives and told them how mistaken they were in regarding the tariff act as a repudiation of the party pledge. Result—the Middle West and then the whole country rose up in arms against him.

Viewing the matter simply as one of personal and party expediency the President's habit of speaking his mind at all times is a misfortune. Possibly he has already regretted the Winona speech, and if he is as candid in the next three years as he has been in the last one he is certain to say many things which on reflection he would gladly expunge from the record. The duties of the Presidency probably afford more opportunities for making mistakes than those of any other position, and the man who makes the fewest is usually the one who weighs his words carefully before speaking.

THE "NEW SANTA FE TRAIL."

THE good roads movement is sweeping the country. In every state, almost in every county, interest in the improvement of public highways is greater now than ever before. Different plans are followed but the object is always the same: to provide highways which will do away with the heavy tax now levied on every community by reason of the loss sustained in marketing farm products, and also to provide better facilities for automobile travel. In some of the states there are constitutional provisions forbidding state taxation for road building, but where a genuine good roads enthusiasm prevails it is easy enough to find other means of raising the revenue.

This is the case in Kansas where the work of road improvement has been undertaken by the counties, good roads associations and automobile clubs. Just now there is a good deal of interest in a plan to construct what is to be called the "New Santa Fe trail" extending from Hutchinson to the Colorado line, and following closely the old Santa Fe trail which fifty years ago was the principal avenue of communication between the outpost of civilization at Kansas City and the unsettled Far West.

The promoters of the plan propose to build a thirty-foot roadway along this route. If such a road is built it is expected that Colorado people will continue it from the boundary line to Pueblo where it would connect with the north-and-south highway now under construction through this state. It is argued that such a road would be of immense value to Kansas and Colorado if for no other reason than its attraction to automobile parties who would make the overland trip from Kansas City to Colorado.

This scheme is like to receive an impetus from the historic associations recalled by its name entirely apart from its intrinsic worth. The early history of the Far West contains no more romantic chapter than the story of the old Santa Fe trail. The beginning of the trail was at Westport Landing, a village at the junction of the Kansas and Missouri rivers, where Kansas City now stands. From there the course was due west until the western part of Kansas was reached, where the trail dipped to the southwest and ended at Santa Fe, New Mexico. A half century ago before the first transcontinental railroad was built nearly all of the travel westward followed this trail, and the traffic at one time is said to have been so great that one might encounter two or three wagon trains in a single day. Most of the immigration to the west before the building of the Union Pacific railroad passed over the Santa Fe trail but with the advent of the railroad the old highway lost its importance and finally became almost obliterated so that now even its exact location in some places is unknown.

DIETRICH, ONCE MORE.

THIS is from an interview with Mr. John Dietrich in yesterday's Telegraph:

"I deny absolutely the editorial in this morning's Gazette, stating that I am a 'receptive candidate for the position as superintendent of public schools from which I resigned a short time ago,'" said Superintendent John Dietrich this morning, in speaking of an article which appeared in a local paper.

The minutes of the Board all of which are open to the public will show that I have made no such application. When I resigned it was in good faith and I believe the Board accepted it as such.

I have a number of other positions in the business world as well as school positions in view. The editorial in the Gazette can not be proved."

If Mr. Dietrich intended this as a joke his sense of humor is defective. If he meant it seriously he discredits the intelligence of the public. In either case he displays a singular obtuseness in talking so foolishly for publication.

In effect he says: The minutes of the Board show that I have made no application for reappointment. This proves that I am not a candidate."

Why, sure! Of course it does. We hadn't thought of that. We apologize. Such logic is unanswerable. It is perfectly plain to all who know Mr. Dietrich that if he wanted to retain his place he would first make formal application to the Board before trying to find out the law of the land. Devious methods are as remote from his mind as from that of an infant; he would shudder at the thought of trying to stave off the choice of his successor until after the May school election when a change in the Board might give a majority favorable to his retention.

Again we apologize to our readers for devoting space to the exposure of so transparent a pretense.

FRANK CAUL'S NICE JOB.

From the Bourbon (Ind.) News-Mirror.

LET THIS BE A LESSON.

From the Big Bend Note From the Riverton, Wyo., News.

We have received an invitation to a taffy pull to be given next Tuesday evening. The missive says: "Come without fale." Say, kiddo, in the bright lexicon of youth there is no such word as "fale."

ROTTENNESS AT TRENTON ALSO.

From the Newark Star.

If it shall be again demonstrated that one selfish man without moral scruples can take a well-filled purse to the New Jersey state house and prevent the enactment of a just and reasonable bill to enable Belleville township community to vote upon a question of change in its local government, what better state of affairs exists at Trenton during legislative session than that which is now being exposed at Albany. If this single man did not use his purse to influence legislators what influence could be exerted for he has no other importance or weight? Why has this one man, session after session, employed means to kill the Belleville annexation bill? Is it sentiment? Does he believe that the people of Belleville will be better and happier and more prosperous under their worn out charter than under new political conditions. Nothing of the kind. He owns a large amount of unimproved property which he won't let others buy and improve and he doesn't want to pay the taxes that would be necessary under a better form of government. Not an elevated motive and one in perfect harmony with the methods employed at Trenton to gratify it. But if this unprincipled selfishness shall again prevail if by such means the people of Belleville shall again be denied their petition to the legislature, what difference will repeal can there exist between the rottenness at Albany and the rottenness thus exhibited at Trenton?

BRITAIN'S EXPENDITURE ON WARSHIPS.

From the Baltimore Sun.

The British naval estimates for 1910 provide for an expenditure of $203,018,500. On April 1 next there will be under construction seven new battleships of the improved Dreadnought type, three armored cruisers, two unarmored cruisers, nine protected cruisers, [illegible] seven destroyers and [illegible] submarines. Ten years hence it is not improbable every one of the ships provided for in the naval budget of 1910 will be out of date and a candidate for the junk pile. The first Dreadnought is only a few years old. It was supposed to be the last word in naval construction—the masterpiece of battleship production. Today, according to the logic of the naval experts, it is hopelessly outclassed by British battleships of later construction, and by Dreadnoughts in the navies of other nations. It is a costly business—building battleships for the junk pile. In the economic view it is not intelligent. But until the world becomes wiser the frightful waste of money on naval expansion will doubtless continue. The earnest and faithful workers for international peace have every reason to conduct a more aggressive propaganda than ever before for the inauguration of the era of international arbitration.

THE CANADIAN NAVAL PLANS.

From the Chicago Record-Herald.

In the debate on the new naval plans a member of the Canadian parliament expressed confidence that the attitude of the United States is friendly. The member was right. The American government and people do not look upon war with Canada or with the British empire as worthy of consideration as even a remote possibility. The best proof of that is our northern frontier, naked of defense for all its nearly [illegible] miles. It would be uncandid not to consider the possibilities of future irritation in Canada's development of a special naval force of her own. But any such irritation as may be felt is hardly to be emphasized.

What may be confessed in all sincerity, is a doubt of the wisdom of those who support the present plan rather than that which takes the form of a contribution by Canada to the imperial navy. If Canada is disposed to build or provide ships for the imperial defense, surely a dreadnought added to the imperial force to become an integral part of that force is a more practical gift than the organization of a separate unit.

As to the economic wisdom of the large expenditure planned, the American people themselves too familiar with the guile that dresses private interests in the splendid uniform of patriotism and pretended public need, may be pardoned for some doubt.

However that is a question for the Canadian people to decide.

UNCLE WALT'S EDITORIAL

WALT MASON'S SUNDAY LETTER.

I've often heard the statesman cry: "Oh, voters, watch me bleed and die to shield and guard your sacred rights! I'll labor for you days and nights! I do not care for wealth or fame; to serve the people is my aim; for them I'd dine on a hundred dooms, and occupy a hundred tombs, I love the people, old and young, for them I'd sacrifice a lung!" The people are such easy marks that they believe these statesmen sharks. But I grown old and worldly-wise avoid the man who lies and dies, who works the people graft too hard; no sacred rights of mine he'll guard. I've noticed that the selfish man adopts the "sacrificing" plan; he's always on the trail of ships he'd gladly rob; the county sheriff of his job; and if he loses on that line as constable he'd surely shine. No matter what the job he seeks for liberty he loudly shrieks and has "Oppression" flogged and raked and does the bleeding dying act through heated days and sleepless nights; he wails about the people's rights. Oh, I would give two beans to find a statesman of a candid mind who to the people bravely cries: "I want the votes of all you guys to Washington I fain would go, because, my friends, I need the dough!"

The Daily Chit-Chat

When you see a magnificent gown or rich looking set of furs in some shop window and wish that you might have it, I don't suppose you ever stop to wonder whether you want it so ardently because it is beautiful or merely because it is expensive.

And yet I think that question is a mighty interesting and important one.

"Do you know," remarked a woman to me the other day as she showed me the magnificent set of sable furs she had just purchased, "positively, I am almost ashamed to tell it, but plain marten is really much more becoming to me than any other fur I can buy."

"Then why on earth don't you buy it?" I question, in wonder.

"Why, because it's so cheap, of course," she responded in equal wonderment, "so common, my dear. Any shop girl can have them. Of course, I wouldn't really think of wearing marten, but they certainly are the most becoming."

That to me is an attitude that is positively inexcusable.

For a woman to want expensive things because they are beautiful is a normal and not undesirable state of affairs.

But for a woman or any one else to want expensive things just because they are expensive is wicked.

And yet how many of us are absolutely free from the taint of expense worship?

Would the lady with the magnificent mink coat enjoy it half so much if she did not know that it was quite evident to her most envious sisters that it cost at least $150?

If serge were expensive and broadcloth very cheap, how long do you think it would take the people who assert there is nothing as beautiful as broadcloth to become enamored of serge?

People say they wear diamonds because they are beautiful, but if by some scientific invention or natural discovery diamonds should become as cheap as rhinestones, do you think they would still be worn by wealthy people?

Doubtless we fancy we wear silk for best because it is more beautiful than cotton goods, but if silk were suddenly to become very cheap and cotton expensive which do you think, our dress-up gowns would be made of?

Show me the woman who having extravagantly admired a gown which she thought a high-priced creation, would not lose some of that admiration when she found that after all, it was an inexpensive affair.

For myself I remember conceiving a sudden respect and admiration the other day for a simple little coral broadcloth evening wrap that I thought would be priced at about $25 when the shop girl told me it was an imported model and sold for $150.

But I was ashamed of myself for feeling that way. The thing was not one whit more beautiful and should not have seemed a bit more desirable.

And I want every other woman to be ashamed when she catches herself admiring expense instead of beauty.

DINNER

Split Pea Soup. Beef Pannelas. [illegible] Salad. Rice. Potatoes. Creamed Carrots. Lettuce Mayonnaise. Wafers. Cheese. Imperial Rice. Coffee.

Fish Croquettes. Pick to pieces a pint of cold boiled fish. Put half of a pint of milk on with fish in a double boiler. Rub together one large tablespoonful of butter and two of flour; add to this hot milk and stir until a smooth paste is formed. Add yolks of two eggs; cook for a minute; take from the fire; add the fish, one half teaspoonful of onion juice, a grating of nutmeg and salt and pepper; mix carefully and turn out to cool. When cold form into small cylinder-shaped croquettes. Dip in egg and then in bread crumbs and fry in smoking hot fat. This should make 12 or 13 croquettes.

Imperial Rice. In a double boiler put three cupfuls of milk, one quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and half cupful of well washed rice. Cook until the milk is thoroughly absorbed; then add one third of a box of gelatine dissolved in cold water and then over heat. When the mixture is cold and begins to thicken, add one half cupful of powdered sugar, one teaspoonful of vanilla, one-quarter of a cup of sherry and lastly one half a pint of cream whipped to a stiff froth. Turn into a wetted mold and set aside in a cool place until ready to use.

WEEPS AS HE TELLS STORY OF GRAFTING

CONVICTED BRIBE TAKER GOES BEFORE GRAND JURY.

Wasson and Other Ringleaders in Pittsburg Conspiracy Make Complete Confessions.

PITTSBURG, March 23.—Nine more men, conscience stricken over taking money for their votes, appeared before Judge R. S. Frazier today, and, after telling all they knew of the councilmanic graft conspiracy, had sentences postponed.

Besides these nine, William Brand, former president of common council and one of the ringleaders, according to those who confessed, has also made a statement, which is in the hands of the district attorney.

J. C. Wasson, who is in the penitentiary, made his confession to the grand jury today. He wept like a child during his recital while John F. Klein, the archconfessor, tried to soothe him.

With complete statements from Brand, Wasson and Klein, who were the principals in the conspiracy, according to their own statements, it is said the district attorney is ready to proceed against the bribe givers. And while no names are given out, Wasson's statement is said to implicate prominent men.

Trials to Begin Monday.

The opportunity to confess voluntarily and receive postponed sentences or immunity has passed for those who have not come forward, and those that have been indicted will be brought to trial. The first trial will begin Monday. In all 29 former and present members of the councils received immunity at the hands of a judge and the prosecuting attorneys.

—Air tight anti-jury-fixing law has been started by the district attorney. Today five men were literally yanked from the court room by county detectives. It is said they were busy with bribery money for jurors about the court house corridors. Each man was put through a severe examination and arrests of a number of others known to be jury fixers are predicted.

No indictments were handed down by the grand jury today, although they have sufficient evidence for true bills against more than half a hundred. These will come along according to the assistant district attorney, before the end of the week.

Discovery of Graft.

The installments of the graft story have been so spasmodic that a synopsis is here presented for those who missed the first installments.

Klein's display of $30,000 in bills on the street, June 26, 1908, excited the suspicion of Ernest Frey, a harness dealer. He reported the discovery to the city auditor the latter told Mayor Guthrie, and he passed it on to the Voters league, to whom the citizens of Pittsburg are indebted for the prosecution that was set in motion. A detective's bribery of councilmen in connection with a fictitious wood paving plan started the ball rolling. This led into the bank-depository conspiracy and other forms of graft. The law ground slowly and is still grinding, with the following net result to date:

Results to Date.

In penitentiary: W. W. Rumsey, former president of the German National bank, William Brand, former president of the common council; Joseph C. Wasson, former councilman; H. L. Bolger.

Under sentence to the penitentiary: Former Councilman John F. Klein.

Awaiting disposition of their cases: E. H. Jennings, president of Columbia National bank; F. A. Griffin, cashier, who pleaded nolle contendre.

Under indictment: Forty-one councilmen.

Confessors of bribe sharing: Twenty councilmen, former and present, select and common.

Confessors awaiting turn: Ten former and present councilmen.

Bribes: From $5,000 down to the bargain rate of $81.10.

The fact that about 60 councilmen of the past and present administrations are involved in the scandals thus far exposed, however, indicates a percentage of less than 50 per cent of dishonesty. At the time most of the grafting was in progress the Pittsburg councils were temporarily abnormally large. There were 44 wards in Pittsburg and 15 in Allegheny, with altogether 152 select and common councilmen, a most unwieldy body.

Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. BALTIMORE, March 23.—Phil McGovern, the young Brooklyn pugilist, broke his right hand in the first round of his contest with "Young Britt" here last night, and as a result he said today his fight engagements for the next month would have to be canceled. Despite his injury, McGovern continued his fighting until the fifteenth round, the decision being a draw.

BUTTE LAD LOSES TO "CYCLONE JOHNNY"

OAKLAND, Cal., March 23.—"Cyclone Johnny" Thompson was given the decision tonight over Charlie Norvall of Butte, Mont., in a ten-round fight here tonight. Thompson brought Norval to his knees twice in the third and again in the fourth but he could not land a knockout punch. Thompson had a shade in the last three rounds.

JOHNSON IN TROUBLE

Prosecuting Witness Fails to Appear, and Black Fighter Is Tied Back to a Call.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion, spent five hours today in a cell in the Tombs prison. Tonight he is free again, but gloomy, for not only was he locked up for nearly half a day, but, while dancing and singing in the prison, a process server thrust through the bars a summons and complaint in a suit for $1,758.67 and costs, brought against him for the alleged repudiation of a theatrical contract to appear in Kansas. "This looks like a rough deal," said Johnson, as tears come to his eyes. "I have come here on court order, and now they take this action against me."

He was "served," notwithstanding his protests.

Johnson appeared today on the charge of beating Norman Pinder, a negro one-fourth his size in an uptown resort several weeks ago. Pinder, at the time, declined to buy a drink for Johnson, because he could ont afford "wine," which, he added dolefully, was all that Johnson would drink. With a reminiscent touch, he then recalled that there was a time when Johnson was glad to drink "suds out of a bucket." The rest is contained in the charge of a suit against the fighter.

But Pinder and his witnesses failed to appear to press the case today, and Judge Mulqueen of the court of general sessions was wroth. He was inclined to think that the court was being imposed upon, despite Johnson's plea that he had hurried hither on "an 18-hour train, Yo Honah," and raised the champion's bail from $1,500 to $5,000. Johnson's smile vanished like smoke. Unfortunately, he said, his roll, flattened by lawyers, contained only $2,600, and would the court accept that in cash.

The court decidedly would not, so the big prize fighter was led away to a cell, where he remained until late this afternoon, when a friend put up as security property in Brooklyn valued at $12,000.

Though no trace of Pinder had been found tonight, the case is set for 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

CAMBRIDGE DEFEATED

Oxford Crew Comes in Winner by Three Lengths With Little Exertion.

PUTNEY, England, March 23.—Oxford defeated Cambridge in the annual eight-oared rowing race over the championship course from Putney to Mort Lake in hollow fashion today by three lengths. The time was 20 minutes, 14 seconds. Last year Oxford won by three and one-half lengths in 19 minutes, 50 seconds.

For the first mile today, the light blues put up a good fight, and flattered their adherents for a few minutes, but thereafter the race was a procession, the only question being how far ahead the favorites would be at the finish.

The intervarsity race was never rowed under more favorable weather conditions. It was a perfect spring day, the sun shining brilliantly, while there was hardly a ripple on the Thames. There was practically no choice in stations. Despite the early hour of the start, and the fact that the contest was made on Wednesday, instead of on a Saturday, as has been usual, the crowd in attendance was quite up to the usual standard.

All points along the river from which even a glimpse of the passing boats could be obtained were lined with spectators, while, as always, a fleet of launches and pleasure craft followed the shells.

The Oxonians remained strong favorites among the Riverside men and in the betting, having the advantage of 35 pounds in weight; but, undaunted by this lack of popular confidence in their representatives, the Cambridgeites turned out in force and cheered encouragement to the wearers of the light blue.

FIGHT TO A DRAW

Ketchel Puts Up Tame Exhibition With Klaus at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, March 23.—Stanley Ketchel, middleweight champion of the world, did well to get a "draw" in his six-round bout tonight with Frank Klaus, a local boy, before the largest crowd ever gathered under the auspices of the Pittsburg National sporting club. In the first three rounds Klaus led repeatedly without return by Ketchel. The last three periods were slow and uninteresting.

E. F. M. AND STUDEBAKER COMPANIES MERGE

As a result of the merger of the interests of the Studebaker Brothers Manufacturing company and the E. M. F. company, at a meeting of the board of directors of the Studebaker Brothers Manufacturing company, held in the offices of the company, at South Bend, Ind., on Wednesday, and at the instance of the management, Mr. Walter E. Flanders, president and general manager of the E. M. F. company, and Mr. Frederic W. Stevens of J. Pierpont Morgan and company of New York, were elected members of the board of directors of the Studebaker Manufacturing company. Both of the men are now members of the board of directors of the E. M. F. company.

BREAKS THREE RECORDS

Barney Oldfield, on Daytona Track, Shows Spectators Some Real Motor Driving.

DAYTONA, Fla., March 23.—Barney Oldfield today proved his right to the title of speed king by smashing three world's records including two that experts figured would stand for many years.

On the hard surface of the Daytona beach, driving his 200-horsepower Benz, with which a week ago he broke the world's mile record, at a speed of 131.73 miles an hour, Oldfield today covered two miles in 55.45, about three seconds better than the previous world's record, made by Demogeot of Paris on Daytona track in 1906.

Thirty minutes later Oldfield drove against the world's kilometer record of 17.76 seconds, made by Hemery on the Brooklands, England, track. Oldfield shot past the starting line like a meteor and finished the distance in 17.04.

The third record established by Oldfield was the one-mile stock chassis mark of 40.35 in a Knox. The previous record was set by Lewis Strang in a Fiat, 46.30.

Although David Bruce Brown, Walter Christie, George Robertson, Kirscher and many other well-known drivers with fast cars participated in today's races, Oldfield swept all before him with a speed and daring that proved the "old-timer" is better than ever. Oldfield will go for the mile record tomorrow and promises a mile at the rate of 140 miles an hour. While Oldfield won today in the one-mile world championship event, it was evident that the champion was only toying with his competitor, George Robertson, who drove the Christie car.

TIGERS WIN

Show Good Batting Power in Game With Denver Manualites. Score, 7 to 4.

In a game featured with hard hitting yesterday, the Colorado College Tigers won from the Manual Training High school team of Denver by a score of 7 to 4. A feature of the game was the pitching of Dickson, who held the High school lads in line throughout the game. The Manual team held the college to 2 runs until the fifth inning, when five runs were scored. The batteries were: Colorado College, Dickson, Reed. Manual—Kennedy, McKenzie, Rimm, McIntosh. Manual got six hits and made 10 errors, while the college gathered 10 singles and made but three bobbles.

BOUT ENDS IN A FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

LORAINE, O., March 23.—The boxing bout between "Biz" Mackey of Findlay, O., and Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland tonight wound up in a fight between the principals at the end of the sixth round. The referee separated the contestants and warned Mackey about rough work. Kilkane thereupon hit Mackey and in a moment the house was in an uproar. A squad of police reinforced the referee and cleared the opera house.

TO CONSIDER KLING'S CASE

NEW YORK, March 23.—President Lynch of the National league received a telegram today from Garry Hermann, chairman of the National commission, calling a meeting of that body for next Friday morning in Cincinnati to consider the question of reinstatement of Catcher John Kling.

Lynch will attend this meeting and will urge adoption of a uniform rule regarding the player limit which will be in force in the major leagues this season. It is Lynch's idea that a manager should not be considered as a player.

DIRECTORS OF TRILBY CANCEL MILL CONTRACT

Minutes of Meeting at Pittsburg Filed at Company's Office in Cripple Creek.

Special to the Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, March 23.—Minutes of the meetings of the stockholders and directors of the Trilby Mines company, recently held in Pittsburg, Pa., have been forwarded the main office in this city for filing.

At the meeting of the directors, following an informal stockholders' meeting, the action of the special committee, appointed by the directors to visit the property and inspect the mill constructed by L. K. Mearkle, the former president of the company, in declaring forfeited a certain contract entered into between the Trilby company and Mearkle, relative to the completion of the plant, was indorsed and ratified by the directors, for the following reasons:

First—Failure on the part of L. K. Mearkle to pay for the machinery, appliances, material and labor used in his effort to improve the mill.

Second—The mill not having the capacity guaranteed in the contract, nor anything near said capacity.

Third—Failure of the mill to show the guaranteed extraction of the assay value of the ores, or in fact any demonstrated extraction, notwithstanding the mill purports to have been in test operation for about four months.

Fourth—The machinery and construction is so imperfect as to preclude the successful or profitable operation of the mill at all, and it has been declared by the state labor commissioner to be dangerous in its operation to life and property.

The annual stockholders' meeting of the Trilby Mines company, has been set for Thursday, April 21, and will be held at the main office of the company in this city, for the election of a board of directors and the transaction of such other business as may legally arise.

Superintendent William L. Dyer, appointed to succeed L. K. Mearkle in the active management of the property, is making consistent production and at the same time prosecuting development work in virgin territory. The output to date since March 1 has totaled 23 cars of ore ranging in value from $15 to $30 to the ton. This ore is treated at the Golden Cycle mill.

Repairing Sheriff Shaft.

The Regent Leasing company, recently incorporated to operate the Sheriff mine on Raven hill, is meeting unexpected difficulties in clearing out the main shaft preparatory to sinking. The shaft about 350 feet deep, and long in disuse, was found caved in from a point about 110 feet below the collar, and some forty feet of waste rock has already been taken out. The shaft timbers are brought to surface with the rock and the work is necessarily slow as new timbers are necessary. The Sheriff main shaft was sunk in the breccia, just beyond the granite area, and as evidenced was poorly timbered.

Fine Ore From Little Clara.

Returns from two carload shipments, recently loaded out from the Little Clara mine on Gold hill, owned by the Work Mining and Milling company, and operated under lease by The Little Clara Leasing company, one of the Humphreys-Thompson syndicate's operating companies, show high values. Lot 1, containing in excess of 15 tons, brought a settlement at the rate of $116 a ton, and lot 2, containing 31 tons gave values of $96 to the ton. This ore was mined by C. C. Eashom operating a sublease from the original leave holders. Operations are shortly to be resumed by the Little Clara Leasing company, on an extensive scale.

Rubie Shaft 1525 Feet Deep.

Sinking has ceased in the winze, starting from the ninth level of the Rubie shaft on Bull hill. These workings, now 25 feet below surface, are the deepest in the Bull hill section, and it is the opinion that the deepest of the district.—Drifting has been commenced both north and south from the shaft, and inasmuch as rich ore was mined in the winze, for sixty-five feet of the last lift of 75 feet before the vein dipped from the shaft, [illegible] and should again expose ore. The property is owned by the Princess Alice Gold Mining company, and is operated under lease by the Rubie Mining and Leasing company, one of the Humphreys-Thompson leasing companies.

SENTIMENT BEARISH ON STOCK EXCHANGE

Increasing Pressure of Offerings, Largely for Boston Account, Starts Downward Movement.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The early promise today of an inert holiday market was not borne out by the later developments when increasing pressure of stocks for sale carried prices comprehensively downward. It was asserted that a large part of the selling of stocks was for Boston account and might be in pursuance of a speculative campaign.

The array of charges against the United States Steel corporation presented to the attorney general by the American Federation of Labor was another factor in making the day's sentiment. So also was the result of the election in the Fourteenth Massachusetts district of a congressman. The Boston selling was accompanied by professions of apprehension that revision of the tariff would be made an active issue of the coming political campaign with the traditionally unsettling effect on securities markets.

The results of the New York city bond sale did not creat enthusiasm as they were studied in their larger bearings. This feeling was emphasized by the renewed decline in the price of New York city bonds, the new 4s receding to 101. The average subscription price having mounted to 101.25, the day's price thus represented a loss to the subscribers.

An incident of the day was the declaration of only the regular dividend on Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis stock, although an increase had been persistently rumored. The early advance in Reading was accompanied by rumors that the Baltimore and Ohio holdings of that stock had been sold. The recent acquisition of Hocking Valley by the Chesapeake and Ohio has served to increase credence given to rumors of other deals.

The persistence of the international money exchanges against London is a subject of discussion and gives rise to the supposition that another advance in the Bank of England rate may be resorted to after the April settlements are passed in order to attract funds to that center.

Bonds were heavy. Total sales, par value, $4,317,000. U. S. bonds unchanged on call.

The governing committee of the stock exchange today granted the request of the members that it be closed on Good Friday, March 25, and Saturday, March 26.

RAIN FORECAST HALTS ADVANCE IN WHEAT

Gains on Bullish Crop Reports Partly Lost.—Coarse Grains Weak. Provisions Strong.

CHICAGO, March 23.—Sensationally bullish news from the southwest caused an advance of more than one cent in wheat prices here today, but the gain was not all retained, the market weakening late in the session on realizing sales. Prices closed ⅝@¾c to ⅝c higher. Coarse grains ruled weak, while provisions were strong.

Crop advices, which were more pessimistic than any previously received, started prices in the wheat pit on a sharp upturn early in the day and prices had moved up about 1 cent. Later it was reported from Kansas City that the weather bureau there predicted rain for that section of the winter wheat belt. This started quite general profit taking which resulted in a material setback in prices. From $1.09⅝ July dropped to $1.08, and September from $1.07½ to $1.06⅝. May in the meantime declined from $1.14¼@⅜ to $1.13⅝. Final figures on July were $1.08½, September $1.06⅝, and May $1.13¾.

Corn was weak most of the session. A leading elevator interest was a free seller of the July option. At the low point prices were fully 1 cent below the closing level of the previous day. Demand for cash corn showed some improvement and prices at the sample tables were ½c to 1c higher. No. 3 yellow sold at 59½@60c. The market for futures closed weak at the low point with prices 1c to 1⅛c lower. May closed at 61⅝@¾c, and July at 63¾c.

Oats followed closely the course of corn, sentiment being bearish nearly all day. The market closed weak at the bottom.

Provisions closed strong with prices 5c to 20c higher, final figures on the May products being: Pork, $26.10; lard, $13.97½, and ribs $13.85.

PLANS CONSOLIDATION OF BUTTE COMPANIES

Stockholders of Anaconda Company Vote to Increase Its Capitalization to 6,000,000 Shares.

ANACONDA, Mont., March 23.—At a meeting of stockholders of the Anaconda Copper Mining company today it was decided to increase its capitalization from 1,200,000 shares having a par value of $25 each, to 6,000,000 shares of the same par value.

The board of directors was authorized and directed to offer to the following named companies the following respective amounts of the capital stock of the Anaconda Copper Mining company in exchange for all of the properties and assets of every kind owned or possessed by such corporations.

To the Boston and Montana Copper and Silver Mining company, 1,200,000 shares.

Red Metal Mining company, 500,000.

Washoe Copper company, 350,000.

Butte and Boston Consolidated Mining company, 300,000.

Big Blackfoot Lumber company, 300,000.

Trenton Mining and Development company, 120,000.

Diamond Coal and Coke company, 100,000.

Parrott Silver company, 30,000.

Alice Gold and Silver Mining company, 30,000.

The foregoing, if carried out and accepted by the different companies interested, will make a total issue of 4,200,000 shares out of a total authorized capital of 6,000,000 shares.

SALT LAKE, Utah, March 23.—It is understood here that the action taken today at Anaconda, providing for a merger of the Anaconda Mining company with other companies, is preliminary to a greater merger which, it is said, will include the Guggenheim and many other leading copper properties.

The Amalgamated, which is only a holding company, would in that event go out of existence. The great merger, however, is held up pending the United States supreme court decision in the Tobacco and Standard Oil cases.

FOUR-ROOMED shingled house, lot 67x110 stable and wagon shed lawn and trees, $2,000; $1,000 down balance to suit you Wm Clark, 619 E Boulder

LAST week's sales of East Colorado City lots has clearly demonstrated that our assertion—that all would be sold quickly—was absolutely correct If you want a pair of the beautiful East Colorado City lots it would be well to call at once and make your selection Of course you know they are located in the best residence part of the city, near Thorndale park. The price at which they are selling—$300 to $450 per pair—is really less than half their value. You don't need all the money. A small amount down and balance monthly Call and look them over
KINSMAN & WOLFF

FIVE ROOMED shingled house, modern except heat; chicken coop, fence, lot 50x100 Price, $2,000, $1,000 down, balance to suit you. Wm Clark 619 E Boulder

FOR SALE—One-third water right under the Chivington canal near Lamar, Colo A bargain if taken at once. For particulars address Bell & White, Lamar, Colo.

EIGHT-ROOM modern house, north; between San Miguel and Columbia, at bargain if sold soon. Inquire E R. Joyce, owner

YES, it is true You have only to ask us to prove it then we do the rest. That is, we show you those beautiful acre tracts in the new Ramona Addition and you immediately realize it is an ideal spot for chicken raising You see the advantages of nearby street car service, also only a few moments' walk from the postoffice. And the cheap price at which they are selling $50 to $125 at once proves their desirability both as an investment and the place you would like to call home Once you view them you cannot refrain from owning one. They are certainly the "dandy" bargain

These Empty Shells

Our baker has transformed them into an Easter novelty of permanent value. Comical caricatures of Teddy, Happy Hooligan, Wu Ting Fang, etc. each the individual conception of our decorator, and no two alike these hand-made novelties may be found nowhere else. If you appreciate "something different" you'll see it here.
